Hey folks,

I'm not exactly sure who's jurisdiction this falls in, but wanted to pass along a concern I'd received from a resident. I ran into Herb on Election Day last week and he voiced a broad concern that the city doesn't do enough to enforce code violations, etc... He sent me these photos of Box Car Books (or what was box car) and I think he believes that the property as too much trash on it. 1) Is this a violation of anything? There is trash, but it's basically in containers outside of some general litter 2) is there anything we can / should do about this? 3) if so are we doing anything?

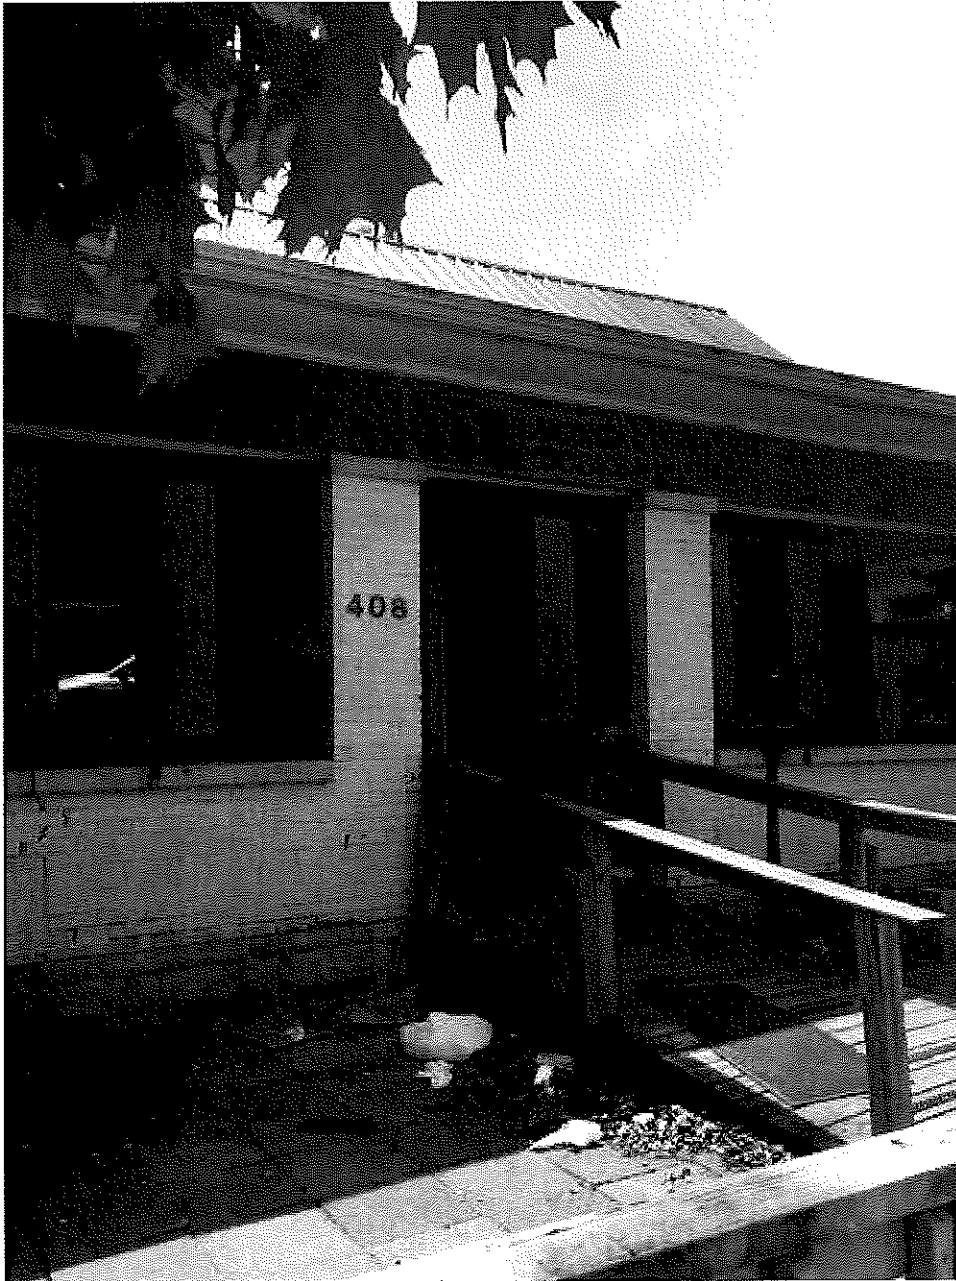

Thanks!

Hi Tom,

I met you on election day at the polling place on Lincoln and Hillside. We discussed how the city has been negligent in taking care of several issues that I see as a concern.
See attached pics of a place next to the Runcible Spoon.
