MEMO FROM COUNCIL OFFICE ON:

The Jack Hopkins Social Services Committee

Organizing Meeting – Friday, 21 February 2025

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2025 Jack Hopkins Social Services Committee. Created by former Council member Jack Hopkins in collaboration with his Council and community colleagues in 1993, this marks the Committee's 33rd year. The purpose of Friday's meeting is to plan the 2025 funding program. Please bring your calendars. This memo provides a brief review of the Hopkins process and highlights issues for this year's Committee.

JACK HOPKINS FUNDING

In 2025 the Committee has $500,000 in budgeted funds to distribute, subject to confirmation from the Office of the Controller regarding available funds as explained below. This is an increase of $150,000 from 2024.

ABOUT JACK HOPKINS FUNDS

- Unused funds from previous years may be available upon additional appropriation. The final amount will not be known until final claims are received, and we are awaiting confirmation from the Office of the Controller regarding this amount.
- A non-reverting Jack Hopkins Fund was created in 2017 and allows for any unused program funds to be available for future allocation by the Jack Hopkins Committee rather than reverting to the City's General Fund at the end of the year.
- While this is a non-reverting fund, any unused money must still be appropriated from the Jack Hopkins Fund. As with any appropriation ordinance, state law requires that the City executive propose the appropriation.

ASSESSING THE 2024 PROGRAM

The 2024 Jack Hopkins Social Services Grant Program was assessed in a Committee debriefing meeting, an applicant survey and self-reports submitted to the City's HAND department upon the submission of an agency's final claim.

- In 2024 the Committee distributed $359,996 among 30 agency programs.
- Survey responses for 2024 are included in the Survey Report contained in this packet.
- The current status of 2024 grants will be provided in a HAND Monitoring Report from Cody Toothman. The final status of grants and self-reports may be compiled by HAND and provided after the final claims deadline.

2024 DEBRIEFING MEETING

The Committee held its Debriefing Meeting on May 23, 2024 and had no formal recommended changes for the 2024 funding cycle. However, the Committee explored several ideas, including:

- implementing a funding focus area for a given year's funding cycle (e.g., focusing on housing service providers one year, focusing on healthcare providers the next year, etc.);
- awarding larger amounts to fewer agencies or continuing to award many partial awards to more agencies, and possibly separating out the grant process into two different tracks or pools of funding;
- utilizing a scoring rubric to encourage equity and transparency in decision making, as well as to aid in providing feedback to applicants;
- incorporating an equity review as part of the grant process, either through a scoring rubric or through some other mechanism;
- using agency presentations as an opportunity to hear only from those agencies from which the Committee needs more information rather than all applicants still under consideration;
- adding questions to the application to ask how agencies coordinate and work with each other and to ask more explicitly about the minimum amount of funding needed for a particular project to proceed.

2025 OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

The increased funding of more than 40% in 2025 presents opportunities for the community and for the Jack Hopkins Program. It also presents likely operational challenges due to the following factors:

- A corresponding increase in the number of applications of more than 40%, meaning that additional staff hours will be needed to review, score and assess applications, compile comments and administer the program; and
- Council's last meeting is June 4, 2025, earlier than in 2024, such that the grant selection process, Committee Report and Council approval must be completed in a shorter time period.

RESPONSES TO CHALLENGES

In response to these challenges, Council staff request the consideration by the Committee of the following operational changes as staff suggestions:

- Streamlining the review and scoring process such that the process might consist of 1) engaging in an initial staff-level technical review to omit applications that do not meet the technical requirements of the Program; 2) self-scoring by Committee members of qualifying applications using a simple numerical scoring system of 0 – 5 points awarded based on certain criteria; and 3) allocating the available funds among applications on that numerical basis; or some other process that reduced staff time.
- Omitting staff comments and staff-compiled comments during the above process.
- Funding full amounts of grant requests as opposed to partially funding requests. This might lead to more effective grant results also.
- Increasing the minimum amount of the grant request from $1,000 to $2,500 or higher.
- Reducing the number of presentations required in the Agency Presentation meeting.

NEXT STEPS

- Solicitation – Council staff will notify agencies of the start of the 2025 grant cycle by emailing community organizations, issuing a press release, and posting to the Jack Hopkins website.
- Technical Assistance for Applicants – Council staff will hold a meeting in March to review the grant process and answer any agency questions.
- Initial Application Review Meeting - The Committee will meet to review and discuss all applications, raise questions for agencies to answer, disclose conflicts of interest, and eliminate some applications from further consideration.
- Agency Presentations – Competitive agencies will be invited to present their proposal and answer any questions that the Committee might have.
- Pre-allocation Meeting – Committee members submit a recommended allocation amount and comments for each proposal before the meeting which will then be discussed.
- Allocation Hearing – Formal allocation recommendations are made and the public is invited to comment.

Subject: Social Services Funding

Most of us have discussed the question of social services funding, either in the Social Services Committee (which has met twice) or individually. I would like to summarize the discussions of the committee so far, in order that we may act soon to take final action on the matter.

The committee reached a consensus on the following criteria to be used for choosing appropriate programs for funding in the 1993 budget year:

1. The focus should be on previously identified priority areas.
2. Programs or projects should be such that a one-time investment will make a substantial difference.
3. Priority should be given to projects or programs where investments now will have a positive long-term spillover effect (such as reduced susceptibility to other diseases, decreased absences from school, reducing lost time for sick child care, etc.)
4. Capital should be leveraged wherever possible by watching from other sources.

The Social Services committee concluded that the Community Heath Program meets all these criteria. Appropriation of the available 1993 social services funds for the Public Heath Nursing Association would enable the PHNA to carry out a drive for complete immunization of all children in Bloomington and Monroe County and enable the consolidation of three separate locations into one building, which would save substantial funds in the process. The possibility of leveraging the investment through Community Foundation's Lilly Endowment grant is being pursued. In addition, a substantial additional appropriation from Monroe County makes the Bloomington investment particularly timely and effective.

I would appreciate your comments before any final action is taken to introduce an appropriation ordinance for this purpose.

2024 Jack Hopkins Agency Survey

Your agency sought funds for:

According to current guidelines, an agency application will be evaluated under the following criteria - whether the request: 1) addresses an identified priority your organization could seek funding for in 2024?

Feel free to explain your answer here:

The nature of our work is

The intent of the grant was clear.

we asked for one-time purchases that are equipment for our Express Rebuild. That helped us leverage other donations for the building project.

It is confusing to state that the funds are intended as a one-time investment and then add "though operational funds will be considered". Originally when Jack Hopkins was created it was intended to be a one-time capital type improvement investment. Since you have expanded the purposes of the funding (which is good!), a more clear list of criteria should be listed. Including saying how project should aligns with community/city priorities. If you add new focuses, like this round had focus on diversity/equity...add that to the criteria. The criteria should clearly outline what proposal should address and be evaluated on.

Three times in the past Jack Hopkins funds have been used to springboard employees that are still working today.

How did you learn about the Jack Hopkins Social Services Fund?

The Committee strives to make the application process as simple and convenient as possible. What did you think about the application process? How might we improve it?

7 responses

I found the application straightforward and well-suited to describing our project.

The application process was straightforward. The only improvement I suggest is allowing for more space to describe the project for which one is seeking funding.

It is explained fully and is not difficult to follow.

The process was very good. A nice balance between requesting information that is needed for the application review, and keeping things simple.

The presentation volume and process is a lot. If the committee were able to reduce the number of applications a little more, closer to the amount of funding, that would be a shorter, cleaner process. It seems it has to get difficult for committee members to keep information clear and stay focused with over 30 presentations in one sitting. Also, the time limit for presentations needs to be firmly adhered to, especially when there are that many agencies presenting.

The application and what to submit was fairly simple and convenient. What was challenging was the clarity of some of the follow up questions along with an unrealistic 5 minute time-frame to address the questions, along with sharing info about the request. For instance, if you are going to ask each applicant the questions about doing the project with less funding, I think you can eliminate the question on the application where you ask us to prioritize the line items if less funding is allocated, or better yet, do away the question unless someone has indicated on the proposal that the project depends on other anticipated funding, or has some other confusing part of their application.

The process is fine

To improve transparency and fairness in the grant awarding process, we are considering the use of a public rubric for evaluating applications in the ne...r evaluating applications in the next funding cycle?

8 responses

Please provide any additional comments or suggestions regarding the use of a public rubric for the grant evaluation process.

6 responses

I'm not against the idea in theory, as it's hard to argue with transparency. However, careful thought would have to go into the rubric's creation, as a poor fit between the chosen metrics for the rubric and an important, deserving project could force the committee into denying funds to a group they otherwise would have funded. For example, a rubric could unintentionally weight projects that serve the largest number of people, even though their impact is minor compared to other potential projects. Also, the presence of a rubric might change the nature of proposals received, as agencies work to submit projects that best fit the rubric rather than address the area of greatest need. If a rubric is created, I would advocate for a trial year or two, in which the committee does score the proposals based on the rubric, but is not bound by these scores for funding decisions. It will allow the committee to refine the rubric so its scores actually reflect the committee's priorities and allow time to make adjustments.

I do not have strong feelings either way.

The reservation for not checking very supportive has to do with what the rubric will contain as evaluation criteria. The concept of a public rubric is appealing.

I'm not sure that adding a public rubric is a good idea. It might be nice though to privately provide feedback to grant applicants that were declined to help them understand if there was a specific reason their application was declined, i.e. if it wasn't considered within the highest priorities, or if they didn't answer a question as intended, that kind of feedback can be very helpful to organizations.

Depends on the rubrics and interpretations of how to evaluate.

I'm not familiar with their efficacy

Did your agency attend the Technical Assistance for Applicants meeting on March 18th?

8 responses

If you attended the Technical Assistance for Applicants meeting, what were the most helpful aspects of the meeting? What would you like to see addressed in the future?

6 responses

How to handle the claims process.

The most helpful aspect was knowing when we could begin to use the funds.

Cody is methodical and clear in explaining the various components of using the grant funds and reporting the use. There were technical difficulties with the Zoom setup this year so I missed the first part. If we receive an award next cycle I will plan to attend in person.

I tried to attend the virtual link, but the meeting link said waiting on host to start the meeting. I double checked the date and time and it seemed like I was on at the correct date/time, but I must have gotten something wrong, because it never opened up for me.

Think it is really helpful for first time applicants, and to learn if anything has changed. Time and ability to attend in person or via Zoom is very helpful.

NA

If you did not attend the Technical Assistance for Applicants meeting, is there a change to the meeting – including, but not limited to, matters such as time, place, or content -- that might encourage you to attend next year? Any feedback is appreciated.

4 responses

N/A

For me it was some kind of technical difficulty - I really tried to attend, the virtual link just didn't work for me. I looked at everything again, and I really couldn't figure out what I had done wrong.

Unless the process changes, the meeting isn't useful for those of us who have been working with this process for a number of years.

NA

During Agency Presentations, the Committee treated agencies in a fair and equitable manner.

8 responses

How can the allocation process be more effective in meeting community needs?

3 responses

The current allocation process is effective and straightforward and not in need of improvement.

It's difficult to say - generally, I think keeping the priorities pretty broad or generalized helps to allow organizations to ask for money for what their greatest needs are rather than trying to make "a square peg fit in a round hole".

I like the fact that there is enough flexibility to fund a broad array of activities/especially emerging needs.

Did your agency receive funding in 2024?

If your agency did receive funding, was it full or partial funding?

If your agency received partial funding, was the amount you received still usable for your purposes?

We have secured a grant from an anonymous funder that will also be devoted to serving our income-based self-pay clients, and we have mentioned the Jack Hopkins grant on other pending grant applications.

The Jack Hopkins provided funding for valuable program equipment for which we are not seeking co-funding. If we had not received funding from Jack Hopkins, we were planning on attempting other grants rather than attempting to engage co-funders.

In two ways: 1)The Jack Hopkins funding will permit us to leverage other funding that could have been applied to rent assistance but at the expense of helping Bloomington residents with utility assistance. This funding will allow us to maximize our ability to help Bloomington residents with rent and utilities assistance. 2) We are able to leverage the grant funds to augment the assistance provided to clients by Township Trustees and other agencies and organizations.

Sort of - Anytime you can show that a particular project or program has support from other funders, that generally looks good to potential funders, especially when support is coming from the county or city (as in JHSSF case). This shows the community supports the project or program. In our request, we do have other funders contributing toward our project, but they aren't exactly matching because JHSSF funded the project. In our project, other funders are generally funding different geographical locations for the same project.

By leveraging funds from Jack Hopkins SSF, we are able to use fundraising dollars for programs and services, and provide more meals. It will not garner matching funds, but allows us to make those changes and improvements to programs without having to dilute our program fundraising efforts to do so.

Most funding sources/donors want to see diversity of funding sources along with a show of community support. Jack Hopkins helps me to demonstrate this

We are able to fund the other half of a year's salary for an employee because of Jack Hopkins paying the other half

For several years, the Committee has accepted as many as two applications from agencies. The purpose is to allow agencies to be part of an application for a collaborative project as well as to submit their own application. Collaborative projects promote innovation and efficient uses of funds within the community. Please tell us what you think about the collaborative project initiative.

I think it's a great idea!

I feel that collaborative projects bring about creativity between entities and should be encouraged. However, the focus should be kept on keeping a balance between funding single agencies as well as collaborative projects.

We have not had an opportunity to explore that option. We already work with other agencies and organizations but without the formal arrangement of an official collaboration project, without the possible complexity of joint administration of funds, but we would be willing to do so if the Jack Hopkins committee chooses to emphasize such arrangements.

It's okay. Sometimes it makes a lot of sense for agencies to collaborate on a project. Other times it feels forced. It just depends on the project and cause.

Collaborative projects are not necessarily efficient or innovative.. and they can be much harder to implement and sustain. I'm for collaborative projects that are well thought out etc and meet the criteria that you establish.. I do think it is a good thing to encourage.

In your opinion, is it better to:

This is fine, normally it's nice to have a 12 month period to spend down the funds and invoice for a program, but I do understand this is intended to get the funds into the community quickly helping city residents with most urgent needs.

Regarding the last question, is there a reason the funds need to be used by the end of the year? I have asked for an extension in the past, and been approved to March of the next year. Might be easier to change the agreement to March. I really appreciated the work of the committee members (a hard job) and commend the council for continued funding.

Jack Hopkins is truly a wonderful grant process. It would be amazing if there were more money to fund bigger items or to have multi-year funding.

AUTHORIZING THE ALLOCATION OF THE JACK HOPKINS SOCIAL SERVICES PROGRAM FUNDS FOR THE YEAR 2024 AND RELATED MATTERS

- WHEREAS, the Common Council established the Social Services Funding Committee (Committee) in 1993 to make recommendations to the entire Common Council and Mayor regarding the allocation of discretionary social services funds and, in 2002, named the program in the honor of Jack Hopkins, who was instrumental as a Council member in the establishment of this funding program; and
- WHEREAS, pursuant to Resolution 02-16, as amended by Resolution 13-07, Resolution 16-06, Resolution 20-09, and Resolution 21-01, the Committee serves as a standing committee of the Council with four members from the Council assigned by the President of the Council and with three City residents (appointed by the Committee Chair) with experience in social services; and
- WHEREAS, this year the Committee includes Council members Isak Nti Asare (Chair), Courtney Daily, Hopi Stosberg, and Andy Ruff, along with City residents Nordia McNish, Camryn Greer, and Eddy Riou; and
- WHEREAS, this year, the Committee had $350,000.00 in budgeted funds to distribute; and
- WHEREAS, an additional $9,996.38 is available through past unused monies in the Jack Hopkins non-reverting fund and the Administration has indicated that it will propose an appropriation ordinance for the same, if necessary; and
- WHEREAS, the Committee held an Organizational Meeting on February 29, 2024 to establish the program procedures for the year; and
- WHEREAS, at that time, the Committee affirmed its policies that set forth and elaborated upon the following criteria for making recommendations:
1. The program should address an identified priority for social services funds (as indicated in the Service Community Assessment of Needs (SCAN), the City of Bloomington Housing and Neighborhood Development Department's Consolidated Plan, or any other community-wide survey of social service needs); and
  2. The funds should provide an investment that, through matching funds or other fiscal leveraging, makes a significant contribution to the program; and
  3. This investment in the program should lead to broad and long lasting benefits to the community; and
- WHEREAS, this affirmation included a 2012 change that allowed agencies to submit a second application as part of a collaborative project with one or more other agencies and also included an opportunity made available since 2016 for agencies to submit requests for operational funding; and
- WHEREAS, by the application deadline at 4:00 p.m. on April 01, 2024, the Committee received 39 applications seeking approximately $649,067.36 in funding; and
- WHEREAS, on April 16, 2024 the Committee met to discuss the applications, decided to hear from 37 applicants, and raised questions to be addressed by the applicants at the presentation hearing, which was held on April 23, 2024; and
- WHEREAS, after receiving agency responses to the Committee's questions and hearing the presentations, the members of the Committee evaluated proposals and assigned each proposal a recommended allocation; and
- WHEREAS, on May 09, 2024, the Committee met for a Pre-Allocation Meeting and adopted a preliminary recommendation to fund 30 applications, and these recommendations were adopted by the Committee at its Allocation Hearing on May 14, 2024; and
- WHEREAS, all the foregoing meetings were open to the public to attend, observe and record what transpired, and a period of public comment was offered before a vote on the recommendations was taken; and
- WHEREAS, funding agreements have or will be executed by the 30 agencies recommended to receive funds, and those agencies understand and agree to abide by the terms of those agreements; and

WHEREAS, the staff of the HAND department will arrange for the disbursement of the grant funds pursuant to the funding agreements, which will be interpreted by the Chair of the Committee; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA, THAT:

SYNOPSIS

This resolution brings forward the recommendations of the 2024 Jack Hopkins Social Services Committee. The principal task of the Committee is to recommend funding for local social services agency proposals that best meet Program criteria and best meet the needs of the community. This resolution allocates a total of $359,996.38 to 30 different agency programs. The resolution also: approves the funding agreements with these agencies; accepts the report of the Committee; and authorizes the Chair of the Committee to resolve any questions regarding the interpretation of the agreements.

Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding Program

Elaboration of Criteria for Evaluating and Awarding Grants

In 1993 Jack Hopkins wrote a letter outlining a set of criteria for the use of these social services funds. Those criteria have since served as the basis for allocating the funds. The following is an elaboration of those criteria. These interpretations have been approved by the Jack Hopkins Social Services Committee.

Program Focus

The program should address an identified priority for social services funds (as indicated in the Service Community Assessment of Needs \(SCAN\), the City of Bloomington Housing and Neighborhood Development Department's 2020-2024 Consolidated Plan, or any other community-wide survey of social service needs.)

Commented [1]: update.

This investment in the program should lead to broad and long lasting benefits to the community. Again, in the words of Jack Hopkins, "priority should be given to projects or programs where investments now will have a positive, long-term spill~~over-effect~~~~over-effect~~ (such as reduced susceptibility to ...diseases, decreased absences from school, reducing lost time (from work) .., etc.)

Eligibility

- I. Eligibility: this grant is restricted to organizations that are classified as 501(c)(3) under the Internal Revenue Code.
- II. One Application per Agency: Each agency can submit one application, except for collaborative projects, which allow for an additional application.
- III. Capital Improvements: Funding for improvements to properties outside city limits or not owned by the applicant is discouraged.
- IV. Minimum Request: The minimum funding request is $1,000.
- V. Funding Agreement: Agencies must enter into a funding agreement with the City of Bloomington, with funds provided on a reimbursement basis.
- VI. Expenditure Deadline: Grants must be expended and verified by December of the award year, unless an extension is granted.
- VII. Proportionality: The funding request should be proportional to the number of clients served by the project.

Each of these are discussed further under "other policies" section below.

Priorities

The Common Council prioritizes programs that provide food, housing, healthcare, or other services to city residents who are of low or moderate income, under 18-years of age, elderly, affected with a disability, or otherwise disadvantaged.

- I. City Residency - Programs that primarily serve City residents are given a high priority.
- II. Low Income - Programs primarily serving low-income populations are given a high priority.
- III. Emergency Services – Programs primarily providing emergency services (e.g. food, housing, and mental and physical medical services) are given a high priority.
- IV. Marginalized Groups – Programs providing services to historically marginalized populations or groups are given a high priority.

Commented [2]: For this year, would we like to have more specific priorities e.g. homelessness. And how to reflect in rubric as we discussed last year

Commented [3R2]: We also should discuss whether we want to have two streams of the fund one for e.g. large asks and one for smaller projects.

Commented [4]: Separate out eligibility requirements from priorities.

Commented [5]: need to add info about prioritization re: heading home plan, etc.

Scope of Funding

The Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding Program seeks to encourage innovation and address changing community needs. Further, the Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding Program recognizes that in the current economic climate, operational funding, essential to a non-profit's continued provision of services, is difficult to come by. The Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding Program will consider requests for both one-time investments and operational expenses.

In-Scope

One-Time Investment

Applications requesting funds for projects that address changing circumstances in the community are encouraged. Requests should provide a one-time investment that, through matching funds or other fiscal leveraging, make a significant contribution to the project. EXAMPLES – capital improvements, community health initiatives, seed funding for new programs etc.

Operational Expenses

Applications requesting operational expenses will also be considered. These expenses are recurring rather than non-recurring and examples typically include outlays for personnel, rent, utilities, maintenance, supplies, client services, and other ongoing budget items.

~~Paid Time Off and Bonuses~~

~~Paid time off and bonuses shall not be considered eligible for Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding.~~

~~Agencies seeking funding for operational expenses should be aware that future funding may be unavailable or inadequate to cover their needs and therefore they should not rely solely on Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding for their operational expenses. Any request for operational funding should be accompanied by a well-developed plan for future funding.~~

Formatted: Font: 15 pt

Formatted: Heading 3

Fiscal Leveraging

In the words of Jack Hopkins, who originally proposed these criteria, investments “should be leveraged wherever possible by matching funds from other sources.” Agencies may demonstrate such leveraging by using matching funds, working in partnership with other agencies, or through other means.

Collaborative Projects

The Committee encourages social service agencies to collaborate to address local social service needs. Agencies may submit a Collaborative Project application in addition to a standard application.

Out-of-Scope

Paid Time Off and Bonuses

Paid time off and bonuses shall not be considered eligible for Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding.

Agencies seeking funding for operational expenses should be aware that future funding may be unavailable or inadequate to cover their needs and therefore they should not rely solely on Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding for their operational expenses. Any request for operational funding should be accompanied by a well-developed plan for future funding.

Funding of Events and Celebrations

Historically the Council has not funded applications that promote or implement events or celebrations. This policy is based upon the conclusion that these occasions do not engender the broad and long-lasting effects required above. Events and Celebrations: Funding for events or celebrations is discouraged due to their limited long term impact.

Applications from City Agencies and Other Property Tax Based Entities

Over the years the Council has not funded applications submitted by city departments. This is based on the theory that the departments have other, more appropriate avenues for requesting funds and should not compete against other agencies, which do not have the benefit of city resources at their disposal. Except on rare occasions, the Council has not directly or indirectly funded agencies that have the power to levy property taxes or whose primary revenues derive from property taxes.

Expenses Incurred Prior to the Allocation of Jack Hopkins Funds

Expenses incurred prior to the allocation of Jack Hopkins Funds (mid-June) will not be considered. Agencies may only submit claims for expenses incurred after the adoption of the resolution authorizing the grant allocations for that particular funding cycle.

Guidelines for the Use of Hopkins Funds in Relation to Religious Activities

Hopkins funds may never be used for inherently religious activity; 2) Any religious activity must be separate in time or place from Hopkins-funded activity; 3) Religious instruction cannot be a condition for the receipt of services; and 4) Any Hopkins program must be open to all without a faith test.

Collaborative Projects

The Committee encourages social service agencies to collaborate in order to solve common problems and better address local social service needs. To serve these ends, the Committee will allow agencies to submit an application for funding as a Collaborative Project. An agency may submit a collaborative project application in addition to submitting a standard application.

Collaborative Project Applicants

Applicants pursuing such funding should:

- I. Declare that they are seeking funds as a Collaborative Project and describe the project
- II. Describe each agency's mission, operations, and services, and how they do or will complement one another
- III. Describe the existing relationships between the agencies and how the level of communication and coordination will change as a result of the project
- IV. Identify challenges to the collaboration and set forth steps that address the greatest challenges to its success
- V. Address the following standard criteria and explain how the collaborative project will:
  - Serve a previously-recognized community need
  - Achieve fiscal leveraging or efficiencies
  - Provide broad and long lasting benefits to the community
- VI. Complete a Memorandum of Understanding signed by authorized representatives of collaborating agencies and detailing the allocation of duties between them

Explanation of Other Policies

Agency Acting as Fiscal Agent Must have 501(c) (3) Status

The agency that acts as the fiscal agent for the grant must be incorporated as a 501(c)(3) corporation. This policy is intended to assure that grant funds go to organizations:

- I. With boards who are legally accountable for implementing the funding agreements
- II. With the capability of raising matching funds which is an indicator of the long-term viability of the agency.

Given its mission, the presence of a board, and its general viability, an exception has historically been made for the Bloomington Housing Authority.

Commented [6]: Eligibility Requirement

~~Funding of Events and Celebrations Discouraged~~

~~Historically the Council has not funded applications that promote or implement events or celebrations. This policy is based upon the conclusion that these occasions do not engender the broad and long-lasting effects required above.~~

One Application per Agency – Exception for Collaborative Projects

Except as noted below, each agency is limited to one application. This policy is intended to:

- I. Spread funds among more agencies
- II. Assure the suitability and quality of applications by having the agency focus and risk their efforts on one application at a time
- III. Lower the administrative burden by reducing the number of applications of marginal value.

As noted above, an exception to this rule applies to agencies that submit an application as a Collaborative Project. Those agencies may also submit one other application that addresses the standard criteria.

Improvements to Real Property Located Outside of City Limits or not Owned by the Applicant Agency are Discouraged

Applicants are advised that the Committee typically does not grant funds to agencies for capital improvements to real property located outside of city limits or not owned by the agency. Applications for construction, renovation, or improvements to a building located outside of city limits or not owned by the applicant agency will be given a low priority.

$1,000 Minimum Dollar Amount for Request

This is a competitive funding program involving many hours on the part of staff and the committee members deliberating upon and monitoring proposals. The $1,000 minimum amount was chosen as a good balance between the work expended and the benefits gained from awarding these small grants.

Funding Agreement – Reimbursement of Funds

Agencies that are granted funds will be expected to enter into a funding agreement with the City of Bloomington. The Housing and Neighborhood Development (HAND) Department has been monitoring funding agreements since 2001. In order to be consistent with the practices it employs in monitoring CDBG and other funding programs, the funding agreements provide for a reimbursement of funds. Rather than receiving the funds before performing the work, agencies either perform the work and seek reimbursement, or enter into the obligation and submit a request for the city to pay for it.

Expenditure Before the End of the Year

In order to avoid having the City unnecessarily encumber funds, agencies should plan to expend and verify these grants before December of the year the grant is awarded, unless specifically approved in the funding agreement or granted an extension by the Director of HAND. Please note that funds encumbered from one calendar year to the next cannot be reimbursed by use of the City's credit cards.

Proportionality of Funding Request Relative to Clients Served

In making funding decisions, the Committee may consider the amount of funding requested relative to the number of clients that would be served by a given project.

Guidelines for the Use of Jack Hopkins Funds in Relation to Religious Activities

Jack Hopkins funds may never be used for inherently religious activity; 2) Any religious activity must be separate in time or place from Hopkins-funded activity; 3) Religious instruction cannot be a condition for the receipt of services; and 4) Any Hopkins program must be open to all without a faith test.

City of Bloomington Common Council

Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding Committee

March 4, 2024

Dear Social Services Agency:

The City of Bloomington Common Council's Jack Hopkins Social Services Committee invites social services agencies serving the needs of City of Bloomington residents to apply for 2024 grant funding. This year, the Committee has $350,000 (plus possible reverted funds) to distribute. Each year, the Mayor and City Council have allocated funding for the Jack Hopkins initiative. In fact, since 1993, the Jack Hopkins Committee has granted over $6 million to social service agencies who serve our community's most vulnerable residents.

As funding for the Jack Hopkins program has increased over the years, so too has our responsibility to be good stewards of this fund – a fund enabled by City of Bloomington taxpayer dollars. As stewards of these dollars, we strive to fund projects that have the potential for lasting change -- projects that will improve the human condition of Bloomington residents in the long run. Please be advised that, depending on the strength of the applicant pool, the Committee may not distribute all of its available funding.

Changes in 2024

The Jack Hopkins Committee has made a few clarifications or additions within its criteria for 2024:

- 1) Priority Given to Programs Serving Historically Marginalized Groups
Programs providing services to historically marginalized populations or groups will be given a high priority.
- 2) Clarification added to Claims Submission Dates
Claims will only be considered for expenses incurred after the date that the Common Council allocates the Jack Hopkins funds via authorizing resolution (in mid-June).

Proposal Must Meet the Following Criteria:

1) Address an Identified Priority for Social Services Funding.

The need should be identified in some manner, such as in the Service Community Assessment of Needs \(SCAN\), City of Bloomington, Housing and Neighborhood Development Department's Consolidated Plan or any other community-wide survey of social service needs. High funding priorities include emergency services (food, shelter or healthcare) or other support services to City residents who are: low-moderate income, under 18-years old, elderly, affected with a disability, or are otherwise disadvantaged.

2) Scope of Funding

- a. One-Time Investment - One Time Investment – Applications requesting funds for projects that address changing circumstances in the community are encouraged. Requests should provide a one-time investment that, through matching funds or other fiscal leveraging, make a significant contribution to the project.
- b. Operational Expenses - Applications requesting operational expenses will also be considered. These expenses are recurring rather than non-recurring and examples typically include outlays for personnel, rent, utilities, maintenance, supplies, client services, and other ongoing budget items. It is worth noting that paid time off and bonuses are not eligible for Jack Hopkins Social Services Funding.

3) Leverage Matching Funds or Other Fiscal Mechanisms.

Other fiscal mechanisms might include things like number of volunteers or volunteer hours devoted to the proposed project, working in partnership with another agency, and/or other in-kind donations.

4) Make a Broad and Long-Lasting Contribution To Our Community.

As articulated by Jack Hopkins, the co-founder of this program: “[P]riority should be given to projects or programs where investments now will have a positive, long-term spillover effect (such as reduced susceptibility to...diseases, decreased absences from school, reducing lost time from work, [alleviating the effects of poverty]...etc.)” Historically, this criterion has excluded funding for events or celebrations.

5) Expenses Incurred Prior to the Allocation of Jack Hopkins Funds.

Expenses incurred prior the allocation of Jack Hopkins Funds as authorized via resolution (mid-June) will not be considered.

Collaborative Projects – Two Applications Allowed

The Committee continues to accept applications for collaborative projects that address community-wide social problems and more efficiently meet the needs of social service agencies and agency clients. Note that if you are submitting a collaborative application, you may submit two applications – an individual application on behalf of your agency and another as part of your collaborative proposal. If submitting an application for a collaborative project, applicants must include a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

Elaboration of Criteria

Over time, the Committee has refined each criterion. A detailed explanation of criteria is provided in the Committee's Elaboration of Criteria, posted on the Committee's webpage here. Agencies are strongly encouraged to review this document.

Other Requirements

In addition to satisfying the Jack Hopkins criteria, to be eligible for funding an application must meet the following requirements:

- Hopkins funds are intended to be put to work in the community as soon as possible. For that reason, agencies must submit final claims no later than December 2, 2024 (tentative).
- The program for which funding is sought must primarily benefit City residents.
- The application must request a minimum of $1,000.
- The applicant must be a 501(c)(3), or be sponsored by one. In the event the applicant is sponsored by a 501(c)(3), the sponsoring agency must provide a letter acknowledging its fiscal relationship to the applicant. All new applicants are required to submit 501(c)(3) documentation.
- One application per agency, unless participating in a collaborative project.
- Any agency receiving Jack Hopkins funds must participate in the federal E-Verify program.

Living Wage Requirements

Some not-for-profit agencies receiving Jack Hopkins Funds are subject to the City's Living Wage Ordinance, Bloomington Municipal Code §2.28. For 2024, the Living Wage is $15.75 an hour, of which $2.36 may be in form of health insurance to the covered employee.

An agency is subject to the Living Wage Ordinance, only if all three of the following are true:

1. The agency has at least 15 employees; and
2. The agency receives $25,000 or more in assistance from the City in the same calendar year;
and
3. At least $25,000 of the funds received are for the operation of a social services program, not for physical improvements.

An agency who meets all three criteria is not obligated to pay the full amount of the living wage in the first two years they received assistance from the City; instead they are subject to a phase-in requirement. Please visit the City's Living Wage Ordinance page to learn more.

How to Apply

To be eligible for consideration, your agency must submit the following. Applications that are missing any of the required information will be eliminated from further consideration.

- ✓ COMPLETED APPLICATION FORM. Electronic forms are available here. (Return as a PDF)
- ✓ PROJECT BUDGET DETAILING THE USE OF HOPKINS FUNDS A budget template is available here. (Please Note: this is a detailed accounting of how Jack Hopkins dollars would be spent on the project proposed in the application, not the budget for the organization)
- ✓ APPLICATION SUMMARY available here. (Return as a Word Document)
- ✓ A YEAR-END FINANCIAL STATEMENT including fund balances, total revenue and expenditures
- ✓ SIGNED, WRITTEN ESTIMATES if seeking funding for equipment or capital improvements
- ✓ A MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING signed by all agencies participating in an application for a Collaborative Project
- ✓ 501(c)(3) DOCUMENTATION FOR ANY FIRST-TIME HOPKINS APPLICANT
Agencies who have previously applied from Jack Hopkins funding do not need to provide this documentation.

JACK HOPKINS FUNDING CRITERIA

NEED (200 words or less)

Explain how your project addresses a previously-identified priority for social services funding as documented in the Service Community Assessment of Needs, the City of Bloomington, Housing and Neighborhood Development Department's 2020-2024 Consolidated Plan, or any other community-wide survey of social service needs.

ONE-TIME INVESTMENT (100 words or less)

Jack Hopkins Funds are intended to be a one-time investment. Explain how your project fits this criterion. If you are requesting operational funds (e.g., salaries, rent, vouchers, etc), you must detail your plan for future funding.

LONG-TERM BENEFITS (200 words or less)

How will your project have broad and long-lasting benefits for our community?

OUTCOME INDICATORS (100 words or less)

Describe the outcome indicators to be used to measure the success of your project.

The ultimate outcome of a project (e.g., reduced hunger, homelessness or addiction rates) are often not readily observable within the Jack Hopkins funding period. For that reason, we are asking agencies to provide us with outcome indicators. In contrast to program activities (what you bought or did with grant funds) and the long-term impacts of a program (the lasting social change effected by your initiative), the data we seek are the short-term, preferably quantitative indicators used to measure the change your program has created during the period of your funding agreement. Example: an agency providing a service might cite to the number of persons with new or improved access to a service.
